The Lonergan Society at Marquette University will be hosting the sixth annual Lonergan on the Edge graduate student conference on September 19th and 20th, 2014, on the campus of Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Papers of any topic related to an interest in Lonergan Studies will be considered. Anyone without a PhD who is currently enrolled in graduate school or who has attended graduate school within the last 5 years is welcome to submit, and all are welcome to attend.

This year’s conference will feature the second installment of the M. Shawn Copeland Presentation in Contextual Theology—an annual, funded graduate student presentation on the intersection of Contextual Theology and Lonergan Studies. The graduate student awarded the M. Shawn Copeland Presentation in Contextual Theology will have the opportunity to present their work in an expanded format of 30 minutes presentation, 15 minutes Q&A, and will receive financial support for travel and accommodations. Special consideration will be given to those submissions that creatively and constructively advance both an area of contextual theology and a relevant aspect of Lonergan Studies. Students interested in applying for the M. Shawn Copeland Presentation in Contextual Theology should follow the regular submission instructions below while also indicating by email their interest in the award.

Regular paper presentations will be a total of 30 minutes: 20 minutes presentation, 10 minutes Q&A. All proposals should be prepared for blind review (i.e., no names on the paper itself, just the title) and submitted in the form of a 1-page, double-spaced abstract. Only one submission per person will be considered.

Email to lonergansociety@gmail.com no later than July 7th, 2014. Submission results will be announced no later than July 21st, 2014. Email lonergansociety@gmail.com with any questions.
